

Winter 2025

The winter is here, but the nonprofit Alley Pond Striders are already preparing for the 40th running of the Alley Pond Striders Five-Mile Challenge! The 5-Mile Challenge has a reputation as one of the best races in Queens. We offer a scenic yet challenging course – all in the park! The event is open to runners and walkers and brings together the athletic community in friendly competition. This year, the race will be held on Sunday, April 27th. We are asking for your sponsorship and support, knowing that you will be proud of your contribution to this great Queens tradition.
